

Defining your Homier Home | A Guiding Worksheet

Ideal Home

1. What value and purpose does/could your home serve your family?

Consider the different functions your home is used for, the different seasons your life takes on throughout the year, and how exactly your home serves your specific family.

2. Describe your ideal home.

What does your ideal home feel like, sound like, look like? What words would you use to describe your ideal homier home? What have you loved about homes while traveling? What did you think was awesome about homes when you were a kid? Need help with the verbiage? Here are some common descriptor words by room from a study performed by psychologists. This may help give you a starting point.

3. How would things be different if you lived in your ideal home tomorrow?

What does you and your family stand to gain? What stuck out to you the most? Do any of these feelings exist in your current home? If so, where and why?

Current Home

4. What do you love currently about the feels and functions of your home?

What do/did you love about this home that moved you to purchase it? Jump on the positivity train!

5. What does your home lack that would bring value to your family now and in the future?

What causes you and your family stress? Do you have room to create family memories? Do you wish your home could be, do, feel any different when you host guests?

6. Why do you seek to create a homier home?

Fill in the rest of: "I seek to create a homier home because...". Make it a sentence, a paragraph, or longer, but be sure to dig deep.

Challenge: Write your definition of homier home.

Include your descriptor words from above and what homier home means to you and you only. There is no wrong answer. My definition of a homier home is...
